

Trophy hunt – Scandinavian moose

Scandinavian Moose

NordGuide offers a six-day moose hunting adventure in Swedish Lapland. This hunting is 1 to 1 guided hunting with a free running dog, where the guest hunter has many opportunities to fell a Scandinavian moose in the Kingdom of Sweden (80 per cent chance of a trophy bull). NordGuide has at its disposal about 60,000 hectares of hunting grounds, varying between forest land and large barren mires. The hunting is done together with a professional hunting guide and a specially trained free-running dog that works independently and holds the moose at bay. When we hear the dog baying, we carefully sneak up into the wind to get in a shot at the skittish moose. We will also try hunting by luring the moose.

Accommodation is at an inn/ hunting lodge with access to a sauna. We serve food with a local flavour, made from ingredients from the Tornedalen forests.

Welcome to a hunt above the Arctic Circle, stalking the world's most elusive moose, a challenge to every hunter!

About Swedish Lapland

Norrbottnen is the northernmost county in Sweden, with a population of 250,000 people, 160,000 reindeer and 65,000 snowmobiles spread over a quarter of Sweden's total area. We represent 2.8 % of the Swedish population which totals nine million. Norrbotten has 14 local authorities or municipalities. In area, Kiruna is the biggest and Haparanda the smallest. Luleå Municipality has the largest population - 72,000 - while Arjeplog has the smallest with just 3,000. Norrbotten contains the highest mountain in Sweden, Kebnekaise (2,111 m), as well as the deepest lake, Hornavan (226 m). Three of Sweden's four state-protected rivers run through Norrbotten: the Torne, Kalix and Pite rivers.
